In case of false information, we reserve the right to bring the matter before the competent authorities. We also reserve the right to block, temporarily or permanently, your account.

In the event of incorrect information, the request to modify this incorrect information may be subject to a charge.

Zone C

The screenshot shows a registration form titled "Zone C" with a red border. On the left, there are three unchecked checkboxes with the following text: "I have read and expressly accept the general conditions of sale", "I have read and expressly accept the general conditions of use", and "I have read and expressly accept the privacy policy". On the right, there is a yellow button labeled "Create an account". The text "Zone C" is displayed in red in the center of the form.

Legal obligations

Before creating your account, you must read the General Conditions of Sale, the General Conditions of Use as well as the Privacy Policy.

You will then need to fully accept each of them by checking the corresponding boxes.

If you disagree with the General Conditions of Sale, the General Conditions of Use and/or the Privacy Policy, then you must not use this Online Service.

Pressing the "Create an account" button will create your account. You will receive an email asking you to validate it. In this email, you will find a temporary password allowing you to log in after validation of the account.

Restrictions

1) For emails:

Your email address will be used throughout your use of the Service. You must therefore use a valid, durable, non-disposable email address that accepts incoming emails without restriction.

This implies, on the one hand, that if you use a sender verification system, you will have to have previously registered the email address "no-reply@metamot.xyz" in your whitelist.

This implies, on the other hand, that the use of email addresses in gmail or other services of this type blocking senders who have not installed proprietary files of these systems are to be prohibited, these systems risk blocking emails coming from this Online Service.

2) For countries:

We have deliberately chosen to open this Online Service to a limited number of countries. If your country is not on the list, you can contact us via the contact form.

We will deal with the possible addition of a country on a case-by-case basis.

3) For the quality of your structure:

You must specify whether you represent a company, an association or another organization. This Online Service is not open to individuals.

4) For VAT:

This number is essential for certain structures and must be entered according to the standards of your country.

It is mandatory for companies subject to the European Union.

This number is used to determine your obligations towards your country in terms of VAT.

Depending on the case, the amount of VAT will be added to the amount excluding tax when paying for your order.

In case of false information, we reserve the right to bring the matter before the competent authorities. We also reserve the right to block, temporarily or permanently, your account.

5) For the General Conditions of Sale, the General Conditions of Use and the Privacy Policy:

Before creating your account, you must read the General Conditions of Sale, the General Conditions of Use as well as the confidentiality policy.

The creation of your account and the Use of the service imply full and complete acceptance of each of them.

If you do not agree with at least one of them, then you must not create an account and you must not use this Online Service.

6) For illustrations:

The images of the different bellows of this accordion are there for illustration purposes to help understanding. They have no contractual value.
